

COM-19 Using Your Five Senses

Helps students identify sensory imagery and appreciate how authors create pictures through words and phrases that appeal to our senses.

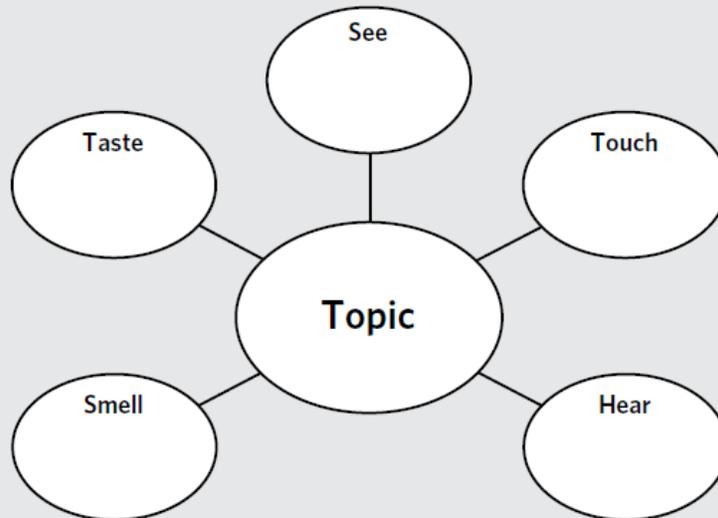

MATERIALS: Narrative or expository text, using your five senses chart, paper, pencils/markers

- 1 Read a text aloud to the class.
- 2 Periodically, stop and have students close their eyes and form images about what was just read.
- 3 Help students suggest words and phrases that assist them in forming images.
- 4 Record the words on the chart under the appropriate sensory heading.
- 5 After completing the story, students can use the words on the chart to write a summary.
