

Provide strategy-based instruction and intervention with consistent resources at the right levels.

Target 17 key comprehension strategies based on the new standards.

- Pre-assess, monitor progress, and confirm mastery.
- Use whole-group and small-group resources to model and instruct.
- Guide practice and application of strategies in books.
- Extend and personalize learning with e-resources.

Posters and books organized by strategy and level help you teach comprehension and metacognitive strategies.

See Spanish
pp. 274-276.

“In a market flooded with isolated skill and drill, Anchor Workshop stands out as research-based, scientifically validated instruction that promotes real reading and authentic application. Everything is clearly organized for teachers to easily find resources targeted to a specific reading strategy. So many of the nonfiction titles parallel our social studies and science curriculums—an added bonus.”

—Coordinator of RTI and Intervention, North Penn (PA) School District
